

Vacuum Windows

Vacuum windows can be wedged or coated with either a diamond powder layer or an anti-reflective protective polyethylene film. Windows are mounted in a gold-anodized aluminum flange. The flange contains an “O” ring vacuum seal with a 0.75 inch clear aperture.

Indium seals for high-altitude applications and windows with larger apertures are also available.

Features

- High performance
- Wide selection
- Anti-reflective coatings and/or scatter layers